James (Jim) Hoppe was born and raised in Butternut, Wisconsin. He graduated from the University of Wisconsin Stevens Point with a Bachelor of Science degree in Forestry Administration and a minor in Soil Science. Over the past 36 years, most of his experience has been working in industrial forestry, managing virgin fiber procurement within the Lake States region. He currently lives near Tomahawk, WI where he is the Manager of Timber & Forestry for the Packaging Corporation of America - Tomahawk Mill (1996 to present). Before joining PCA, he was the Wood Procurement Manager for Little Rapids Corporation in Rhineland, Wisconsin (1993 – 1996), Procurement Forester for Midwest Timber at Mercer, WI and Two Harbors, MN (1988 – 1993), and Forestry Technician with the U.S. Forest Service in Park Falls, WI (1986 – 1988). Jim represents the interests of the Pulp and Paper stakeholder group on the Council on Forestry. Forestry associations play a leading role in promoting sustainable forestry and he is actively involved with the following groups:

- Forest Resource Association – Lake States Policy Committee
- Wisconsin Paper Council – Forestry Committee
- AF&PA Wood Fiber Policy Committee
- Trees for Tomorrow – Board of Directors; Executive Committee
